Dining & Drinking

Napa's premier summer festival, Festival Napa Valley, kicked off last week. If you missed the opening weekend festivities don't worry, this ten day wine, art, and food festival still has plenty of fun in store for attendees. Whether you live in the area or are heading that way for vacation, here are ten reasons why you should add Festival Napa Valley to your must experience list.

6. Vintner's Luncheons are held daily throughout the festival. Purchase tickets online and enjoy lunch at wineries such as Stag's Leap Wine Cellars, Rombauer, Luna Vineyards, or Theorem Vineyards. If dinner is more your scene, tickets for Patron's dinners are available to dine at wineries such as Far Niente, V. Sattui, Quintessa, or B Cellars.
